Okay guys, I know you kiiiinda like our posts about what we wear... and I know you soooorta like our posts about Fashion Week. But there's one thing I know that you reaaaaaally like us for: our DIY posts.

No, it's okay, you can admit it. No matter how hard we try with other posts, you really just want us to teach you how to make things. Well, the last fashion DIY we did was maybe...back in August? So I'm sure you've been dying for a new one. Well, we're planning on going back to our weekly schedule & should be posting a new one every Wednesday. So this week we tackle the Jil Sander inspired leather lunch bag! Click on the pics below to go to the full instructional on Chictopia!
